CONTESTANTS WANTED!

Compete for bragging rights and trophies in the four categories above. Sweet deal, as the beer society will pay for your meat and count you as a food contributor. Just show up with whatever you need to cook. Questions? Contact Randy Mosher at: randymosher@rcn.com. Save those receipts—meat only! No money without receipts! Meat only!

BLIND RIBS & CHILI JUDGING!

In addition to the usual popular vote for best ribs, we will have a second award for ribs. Thanks to help from a Memphis-In-May certified judge we will conduct a blind judging of ribs promptly at 3 pm. We are asking all rib contestants to cook at least six slabs so they can help make a contribution to the day's meat supply. So, bone up on MIM quality standards (we will not be following MIM cooking rules, though) at www.MemphisInMay.org, and get those smokers fueled up!

OUR ONLY RULE:

Contestants are requested not to serve their competition ribs or chili to picnic-goers before the scheduled judging time. Violators will be subject to disqualification.

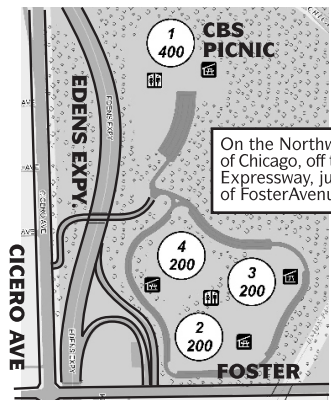

As always, we'll need lots of side dishes, desserts, snacks—don't come empty-handed!

Free to current members bringing food; $5 for empty-handed members and nonmembers with food; $10 for empty-handed nonmembers, but please, don't come empty handed unless you just got off a plane from Tierra del Fuego!

We'll supply: beer, plates, cups, utensils, etc. Bring a big dish, lawn chairs, and games for the kids.

Winners will be selected by popular vote, and announced between 5 and 6 pm.
