

CURDS & ALE II

A Celebration Of

BEER & CHEESE

Photo: Courtesy Brewers Association

With common origins in grain, similarities in flavors and huge range of characteristics, beer can reach heights with cheese wine can only dream of. Come and find out why beer and cheese is the hot pairing right now. This event will feature a CBS-procured selection of American craft beer and American artisan cheeses. A number of the cheeses will come directly from the American Cheese Society Conference and Competition which will take place in Chicago July 23-27. A small number of cheesemakers will be invited to attend our event and sample cheese. If you're not already tuned in to beer and cheese as companions, this is one of the most exciting combinations going!
